Wm. Graves Speaks on "Mental Efficlency"-Special Music Rendered.

Roselawn Social center had charge of the Bertrand Social center Sunday evening meeting last night at the Bertrand school house when a number of addresses were delivered by members of the Roselawn club.

"Mental Efficiency" was the subject of William Graves, in which he spoke of the great difference that is found between business men who use their mental powers to their greatest ability while others use only that which is needed to keep up their business as it is at the present time. The former men are the progressive ones while the latter are the unprogressives, said

Other speakers of the evening were Miss Clarice Stiner on "The Efficient Life:" Charles Heuman on "Spiritual Efficiency." Charles Helman presided at the meeting and special music was furnished by Miss Hazel Markham,
